

12th March, 2023

ACM elects new executive 2023-2025

The Association of Caribbean Media Workers (ACM) on Sunday 12th March, 2023 met in Georgetown, Guyana at its 11th Biennial General Assembly and elected a new executive that will function between 2023-2025.

Mr Harvey Panka of Suriname was uncontested for President.

Ms Nazima Raghubir of Guyana was elected First Vice President (Finance).

Mr Milton Walker of Jamaica was elected 2nd Vice President.

Mr Denis Chabrol of Guyana was elected General Secretary.

Ms Soyni Grey of Trinidad and Tobago was elected Asst General Secretary.

Ms Myriam Malmin of Martinique and Andre Huie of St Kitts and Nevis were elected floor members.

Some 22 persons from 12 regional associations and focal points attended the ACM's 11th Biennial General Assembly where country reports were tabled and discussed. Two resolutions were tabled, one resolution was referred to a Special Meeting of the ACM while the other was passed to widen geographical representation.

The new ACM executive will continue to address issues of press freedom and professional development of the media as well as further enhancing our relationship with international freedom of expression organisations.

The ACM is also planning to continue working closely with the Media Institute of the Caribbean in the delivery of training programmes and other opportunities for journalists across the Caribbean.

END